Eligibility

This Tournament is open to all 2024 TBA registered bowlers residing in Victoria (including Albury). Bowlers must be registered as at 30th April 2024. Bowlers are required to complete no less than 18 games in a league as at 31st May 2024, and continue to bowl in a registered league up to the conclusion of the ECCC tournament. Bowlers not meeting these requirements MUST send a letter detailing reasons with the entry form to the UTBA committee. Acceptance of any entry and confirmation of the average will be determined by UTBA Board.

Format

Stage 1 - UTBA CHAMPIONSHIPS

First Appearance in each of Singles, Doubles and Teams (All Events) will count towards the first stage of the ECCC roll off.

Stage 2 - All bowlers will bowl 8 games in their respective division.

Adult Male & Female - At the completion of both stages the top 7 scratch scores will be declared the Open Team. The remaining bowlers will have their respective handicaps added and the top 7 will be declared the Graded Team.

Under 21 Boys & Girls - At the completion of both stages the top 6 scratch scores will be declared the Open team. The remaining bowlers will have their respective handicaps added and the top 6 will be declared the Graded team.

Senior Male and Female - At the completion of all stages the top 7 scores WITH handicap will be declared the Senior Male and Female teams respectively.

Team Members

Each team member will receive 1 Team Shirt, 3 entries (1 x Singles, 1 x Doubles & 1 x Teams) into the Tenpin Australia Championships plus All Events Entry. This includes 3 Masters qualifying attempts and includes any/all games in the East Coast Challenge Cup.

Practice sessions: Dates TBA.

Shirt Presentation TBA.

All Team members must be available to bowl on Saturday 21st Sept of the Tenpin Australia Championships.

Failure to complete your allocated 9 championship games by the commencement of the ECCC tournament will result in your immediate removal from the team.

Tenpin Australia Masters - The top qualifiers in all divisions will represent the United Tenpin Bowling Association in the Tenpin Australia Masters stage 1 qualifying.
